Harold W. Crandall, instructor in history and social science at the college, received telegraphic orders to report at the officers' training camp at Plattsburgh on Saturday, May 12, and has left coilege.

The first intimation the college at large had that Mr. Crandall anticipated entering the camp, came an hour before Mr. Crandall left for New York. At the weekly convocation held on Tuesday morning Dr. Sykes made a comprehensive report of the conditions for prize awards in June.

Students competing for the Graham Hislop prize of $25 for general proficiency in English, must file at least five of their compositions, either prose or poetry, with the clerk of the figurity before May 15. The judges will be Dr. Sykes, Dr. Mann. Clarke Burr, and Dr. Marjorie Barstow.

Competitors for the Theodore Boden-wein prize of $25 for excellence in Journalism, must file before May 15, contributions which have been made to the press (which is interpreted as an newspaper of repute as well as the college paper). The faculty commit-tee of advisors of the Connecticut Col-legs News will act as judges. Public Speaking.

Dr. Sykes conducted daily assembly on Thursday in New London hall. Miss Woodhull, head of the department of Physical Education announced that two shells had been given to the col-lege classes. One of the boats is to be called Loyalty—1919 and the other Loyalty - 1920. In response to insistent clapping and demands for the name of the donor, Miss Woodhull, finally announced that the boats were the gifts of President Sykes, as a token of his appreciation of the actions of the classes to him in the late trouble.

Dr. Sykes when called upon for a speech told the students that he had not intended them to know the donor of the boats, but as such knowledge seemed to have been given, he would say that the classes would use the boats as a foundation of a crew and that the river which offered so wonderful an opportunity for regattas, in the years to come be the scene of in the years to come be the scene of many exciting races and regattas.

At the close of his speech, the students cheered and cheered and assembly was concluded by the singing of the college song, dedicated to the class of 1929 by Miss Loretta Higgins of Norwich.

Above are extracts from a signed statement recently re-ceived from Mrs. George Woodbury, 4 French Street, Lynn, Mass.

Cuticura Soap, to cleanse, purify and beautify, Cuticura Ointment to soften, soothe and heal, have been most successful in the severest forms of skin and scalp troubles, but greater still is what they have done in preserving clear skins, clean scalps and good hair as well as in preventing little skin troubles becoming great ones. Cheap soaps, harsh soaps, coarse, strongly medicated soaps are re-sponsible for half the skin troubles in the world. Stop the use of all doubtful soaps. Use Cuticura for all toilet purposes.
